

San Francisco to host 2013 America's Cup

San Francisco to host 2013 America's Cup

Experience this spectacular event with West Coast Incentives

Good news sailed into San Francisco when the "City By The Bay" was chosen to host the next America's Cup 2013.

The preliminary heats of the Louis Vuitton Cup will be held between 13 July and 1 September and the America's Cup Match Final is scheduled for 7-22 September.

San Francisco is teaming with excitement and ready to roll out the red carpet for the 34th America's Cup. The sights and scenery, the one-of-a-kind events, world-class gastronomy, the welcoming people and the diverse, rich history, San Francisco is the place to be in 2013.

"Let us be your window to the city for the 34th America's Cup in 2013. Join us in San Francisco for one of the most spectacular sporting events in the world", Kate Cowgill, Director of West Coast Incentives

Please contact Nemonic Concepts for further information and proposal requests.

We are here to help you every step of the way.

